Item Reference: SA1180475

Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

This is a highly collectable pair of 1930s Art Deco cocktail cufflinks with plenty of Jazz Age panache. Made of shiny silvered metal, with a geometric enamelled pattern with a striking zig zag of black and blue enamel. These connect with a bar and hook. Certainly can't be confused with any other era can they? Condition is excellent with minimal signs of age. Ideal for today's dapper gentleman. All our jewellery is sent out in a complimentary gift box via first class FREE delivery.
