Description

This impressive antique bookcase is crafted in beautiful walnut and features a classic breakfront design. The central section is fitted with a pair of panelled doors decorated with geometric mouldings, flanked by open bookcase sections on either side. Each end section offers 3 height-adjustable shelves, and there are 2 shelves in the middle cupboard. The central doors have a working lock and key, and the interior bears the Maple & Co. maker's label. The bookcase is presented in good overall condition, with only light, age-appropriate signs of use. A substantial and elegant piece from one of Britain's most esteemed late-Victorian and Edwardian furniture makers.
