Description

A fabulous parcel gilt pair of early 20th Century well figured mahogany and giltwood pier mirrors in the Georgian Chippendale manner. This pair of mirrors are of exceptional quality with inlaid marquetry and stunning ho ho bird motif detail. The bevelled mirror glass plate of shaped rectangular form is set within a finely carved, moulded and fluted giltwood slip border and elegant fretwork mahogany frame surmounted with a gorgeous crested top centred with a Ho Ho bird cartouche flanked with c-scroll and foliate motifs, finely hand carved high relief. The fretwork shaped apron beneath is embellished to the central reserve with a beautiful cabochon inlaid marquetry panel depicting decorative conch shell motif detail. Mahogany Type: 'Santos Mahogany'
