Description

A late Victorian mahogany work table, the concave-fronted box section veneered in well-figured bookmatched mahogany with a central satinwood patera to the top. The interior is fitted with lidded compartments, shaped divisions and a sprung brass stay supporting the lid, all original and neatly executed, all raised on square tapering legs joined by a low stretcher, designed to echo Georgian and Regency forms. Presented in very good antique condition with some minor age-related surface wear and a pleasing patina. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. Later dealer's stamp for A. M. Kearsey & Son, Oxford, beneath the mirror tray. English, circa 1880. H: 78.5 W: 50.5 D: 41 cm
