Description

This is a beautiful bowl made in Dublin in 1737, it is in very good condition, typical Irish design, very good date letter and Harp, no sign of a makers mark, it has lovely punch decoration and stands on 3 hoof feet, it is 14cms diameter and weighs 213 grams, it has period owners initials M over TM on the base. Irish Holloware from this period is quite rare. A fine piece of 18th century Irish silver.
