Description

A lovely Victorian pine farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a thick planked top and stands on turned legs with a single drawer to one end. The top has a lovely warm colour with a nice aged patina and the legs have a traditional darker finish. It is a good size for 4-6 people and it is a good height to sit at with ample leg clearance of 24 1/2" (62cm) on each side and a few inches less below the drawer. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are some signs of age and use and some old marks and knocks on the top surface and around the legs but nothing untoward or detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
