Description

You are viewing a lovely set of Arts and Crafts dining chairs in oak Circa 1910 with a great farmhouse aesthetic. Seats have been reupholstered so free from previous owners' odours and clean. We have various tables to match if you are looking for a complete dining suite. Tall, shaped crest rails with subtle foliate scroll carving. Triple-splat backs adding verticality and a pleasing architectural rhythm. Traditional turned front legs united by H-stretchers for stability. Carver chairs with broad, shaped arms offering comfortable support. The chairs are made from solid oak with a warm medium-brown patina, giving them that classic farmhouse / refectory feel that works beautifully in both period and modern settings. Bought from a private house sale in London's Queens Park. Offered in great shape ready for home use right away. We ship to every corner of the planet - please get in touch for a shipping quote.
