Description

An Unusual Antique Victorian Perfume Bottle featuring a hand blown emerald green glass body with lattice work overlay and a gleaming sterling silver flip-top lid. The interior of the lid is gilt-lined, bearing clear London silver hallmarks for 1893 along with the maker's mark for J.G&S (John Grinsell & Sons). Complete with its original ground glass stopper, this elegant piece is a fine example of Victorian vanity design. * Perhaps a cherished keepsake, gifted from a loved one and carefully preserved through generations. Measurements: Height: 4" (approx. 10cm) Diameter: 3 1/2" (approx. 9cm) Total weight: 322g In good condition – Glass is free from cracks or chips, with only minimal age-related wear. Silver lid opens and closes smoothly, with a strong hinge and secure fit.
