Description

Victorian mahogany extending dining table This elegant Victorian mahogany extending dining table is a superb example of 19th-century craftsmanship, offering both beauty and practicality. Designed with versatility in mind, the table can be used closed as a oval dining table, or extended with one or both of its two additional leaves, making it perfect for both intimate dining and larger gatherings. Each leaf features matching skirts, ensuring a seamless, uniform appearance when extended. The rich mahogany top showcases a warm patina, while the table stands proudly on four attractive fluted legs, each fitted with original brass castors for easy movement. A timeless piece that enhances any traditional dining room, this table combines decorative appeal with functional flexibility.
