Description

A fully restored Art Deco Style desk clock in full working condition. The frame, base, movement mount and movement cover are of a pressed metal construction and the bezel has been chrome plated, there is slight wear to the chroming but doesn't impact on the condition of the clock. The movement cover and back are enamel black to compliment the chrome finish. The movement has been fully disassembled, cleaned and reassembled back to full working condition and keeps very good time. The chapter ring is of a pressed thin aluminium construction and has the numbers painted onto it, it is wonderful clean and crisp condition for its age, a true rare find. The base has had red felt glued onto it for delicate surfaces. Full working order having been recently professionally serviced. FREE UK Mainland delivery.
