Description

This rare Elm lowboy features a beautifully figured top made from a single wide Elm board, with re-entrant corners on the front. Featuring one long drawer and two shorter ones, it retains the original brass handles, shaped side rails, and turned pad feet. The outer drawers have sprung wooden locks to the side, and a secret drawer is hidden at the back of the left-hand drawer. In excellent condition with no repairs to the feet and having lovely clean Elm drawer linings and of a good original color and patina.
