

SA1181229

Victorian Stag Taxidermy Scottish Highlands Monarch Of The Glenn

Price

GBP 14,000

| USD $18,945 | EUR 16,381

Item Reference: SA1181229

Date of manufacture: 1860

Dimensions

Height = 200 cm (78.7")

Width = 45 cm (17.7")

Depth = 158 cm (62.2")

Description

A Victorian taxidermy study of a Scottish highland deer This stag is dated to circa 1860 And would have been originally prepared and treated in an Edinburgh studio This unique type of item does not often come on to the market often Edward Landseer famously painted the oil painting titled The Monarch of the Glen and this reminds us of that painting Taxidermy is the art and craft of preserving animal specimens, typically by tanning their skins and mounting them to recreate their natural form for display or study A taxidermist, or taxidermist, is the person who practices this art It would make a great addition to a hunting lodge or a business club Offered in great shape and we can ship to anywhere in the world including US Please get in touch for a shipping quote or if you have any questions Dimensions Base L134cm / 52.7" Base width 50cm/19.7" Stag H 200cm/78.7" Stag L 158cm/62.2" Stag W 45cm/17.7"

Seller Details

Canonbury Antiques

Potters Bar Hertfordshire United Kingdom

Tel: 01707 644877

International Tel: +44 1707 644877

