Description

Refined period Edwardian side table with carved cabriole legs Circa 1910 The apron is richly carved with scrolling acanthus motifs centred by a stylised shell cartouche The four cabriole legs exhibit pronounced curvature and are embellished with deeply carved foliate details along the upper sections These legs terminate in paw-style feet, contributing further to the table's sculptural presence A shaped stretcher at the base, also with carved embellishment, provides both stability and visual cohesion, uniting the sweeping contours of the frame The table is crafted in a dark, polished mahogany with a consistent finish that enhances the relief of the carving Offered in great shape ready for home use right away We ship to every corner of the planet - including the USA - please get in touch for a shipping quote Height: 73cm (28.7") Length: 86cm (33.9") Depth: 59cm (23.2")
