Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive antique Victorian 15 carat yellow gold watch chain; part of our diverse collection of antique chains. This exceptional, fine and impressive antique watch chain has been crafted in 15ct yellow gold. The gold chain consists of rounded oval links conjoined with two pierced holes. The yellow gold chain is fitted to one side with a swivel clasp and ring loops to the opposing end. The swivel clasp and chain links is hallmarked with the 15ct gold fineness mark (15, .625); the clasp also bears the maker's mark (EW); such pieces are often crafted in 9ct gold, this higher hallmarked fineness indicates the superior quality of the piece. By virtue of its length, this impressive and versatile yellow gold chain may be utilised as a watch or fob chain, in addition to being worn as a chain necklace or alternatively wrapped around the wrist to be worn as a chain bracelet. Such antique chains are becoming increasingly difficult to locate; at a weight of 52.33 grams the substantial gauge of gold represents a significant value and indicates the further high quality of the piece. This 19th century gold chain is a timeless and versatile piece, ideal for...
