Description

This is a beautifully simple ink well and pen stand, manufactured in the middle of the Edwardian era. The solid sterling silver lid is hallmarked for Birmingham 1906, with the maker's mark of John Grinsell & Sons. The base has three grooves for pens/pencils with the ink well at the back. There are no initials engraved on the lid. The liner for the ink well looks to be original and the glass is in a perfect condition. It is a lovely item of a size suitable for the modern desk. The pen and pencil shown in the photographs are for display purposes and are not included in the sale. Dimensions: Length: 13cm Width: 6cm Height: 5cm Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
