Description

An impressive and especially fine quality lady's DRESSING & JEWELLERY CASE in lovely original condition. The case itself is of finely figured coromandel-wood, with brass-bound edges and matching cartouche and key escutcheons. The lid opens to reveal the impressive interior filled with 13 silver-topped bottles and jars, which surround not one, but two trays of gorgeous tools and implements (one above the other). These include: 2 pairs of fine scissors; MOP penknife; silver pencil; MOP and silver pen and various other items. To the base is a fitted velvet-lined jewellery drawer (with lid); to the side is a further spring-loaded drawer, whilst within the lid is the concealed mirror and leather document pouch. Complete with twin patented Chubb locks and original working key. The silver is hallmarked for London 1859, and the maker is James Vickery, whose family went on to become one of London's leading gold and silversmith retailers, offering luxury goods to wealthy Victorian patrons. A gorgeous; complete and original fitted Dressing Case which is highly recommended.  Please note that this particularly fine Dressing Case is not on view in the shop; for further details t...
