Description

These elegant vintage diamond earrings capture the refined glamour of the 1950s. Each earring is crafted in silver and set with forty-four bright single-cut diamonds in a floral cluster – eighty-eight stones in total—closely arranged to enhance their brilliance. The diamonds have an estimated total weight of 1.2 carats, graded G in colour and VS1 in clarity, giving them a beautifully lively sparkle. Designed for pierced ears, they are fitted with post and butterfly fastenings stamped 925 (silver). Measuring 1.5cm across with a rise of 5.5mm and weighing 4.5 grams, they present superbly when worn. In excellent condition and supplied in the box illustrated.
