Description

A handsome George III wine cooler, crafted in warm-toned mahogany and bound with twin brass bands. The cylindrical body is formed from rich mahogany panels and fitted with brass ring handles to either side, all raised on a square-leg stand with shaped brackets for added presence. A fine example of Georgian domestic furniture, it balances elegance with utility and retains a quietly dignified charm. Whether used as a planter, for storing firewood, or simply as a decorative accent, it brings a touch of period character to any interior. Internal reference : SAI3988
