Description

Rare Wedgwood Blue & White Quill Holder Dish – c.1800 Early 19th Century Transfer Printed Porcelain Pen Tray
A rare and elegant early nineteenth-century Wedgwood blue and white quill holder dish, dating to around 1800. Beautifully decorated with a detailed oriental landscape scene to the interior, with scrolled floral designs to the exterior—classic of the period and highly collectible. Impressed 'WEDGWOOD' and underglaze 'W' Dimensions: • Length: 17.3 cm • Width: 6.2 cm • Height: 2.2 cm This antique pen tray is a fine example of early blue and white transfer printing and would make a wonderful addition to any Wedgwood, writing accessory, or early porcelain collection. Condition: Overall condition is good, with age-appropriate signs of use consistent with a piece of this era. Please refer to the photos for full details. A genuinely rare item and increasingly difficult to find.
