Description

A beautiful 1950s cultured pearl necklace featuring two graceful strands of creamy ivory pearls with a soft, even lustre. Each pearl is individually knotted, ensuring both security and a luxurious drape around the neck. The decorative clasp is stamped "9ct" and tests as 9ct gold. It is set to the centre with a lovely cabochon garnet framed by elegant scrolling gold detail. The clasp fastens securely with a traditional push-box fitting. This timeless necklace combines understated refinement with classic mid-century design — it looks wonderful for both day and evening wear.
