Description

An Antique Silver Plated Hurricane Lamp featuring a silver-plated base with richly detailed repoussé floral and scrollwork, paired with a frosted and etched glass chimney decorated in a leafy motif. Whether displayed on a mantle, sideboard, or used as ambient lighting, it's a timeless piece with undeniable charm. Marked for the renowned maker 'Mappin and Webb' – circa 1920. * Perhaps once used to gently illuminate a summer conservatory or veranda supper. Measurements: Height: 12 1/2" (approx. 32cm) Diameter of base: 4 1/2" (approx. 11.5cm) Total weight: 1406g In good condition – The silver plate shows some light tarnishing and wear, especially around high-relief areas of the base, which adds to its aged charm. The glass shade is free from chips or cracks and retains crisp etched detailing. The piece stands evenly and remains sturdy.
