Description

For your consideration is this wonderful Art Deco Art Deco skyscraper Solid Silver Cased Easel Desk Clock with a French Movement. A stunning clock in excellent working condition having been recently and professionally serviced. Wonderful Deco stretched numerals and stepped casing and if that wasn't enough it comes with a beautiful piece of history and engraving to the case. The solid silver mount is made by Henry Matthews in 1930. It's engraved to the top with "Presented to the Hon. Mrs I.J. Pitman" and on the bottom with "By the students of the Walsall Commercial College, 30th November 1932". As with all our clocks it's been fully serviced and so comes to you in good working order. The condition is above average on the dial, so often these silvered dials are heavily scratched, this one shows minimal aging, you couldn't wish for better considering it's 90 odd years. The case is bright and generally in very good condition. Free UK mainland delivery. Biography Mrs Pitman was married to Isaac James Pitman, there is more information on him below. Provenance and History of Sir Isaac James Pitman Sir Isaac James Pitman, KBE (14 August 1901 – 1 September 1985) was a Britis...
