Description

This exceptional late-19th to early-20th-century four-door wardrobe showcases superb craftsmanship, rich materials, and grand architectural presence. Constructed from beautifully figured mahogany, it features striking maple front columns with finely carved capitals, adding warm contrast and distinctive character to the piece. At the centre, a pair of bevelled mirror doors is framed with delicate hand-carved edging and decorated with elegant floral corner etchings. The wardrobe is crowned with an intricately carved frieze of scrolling foliage and stylised motifs, creating an impressive decorative statement. Below, the fluted base rail is accented with carved rosettes and supported by sculpted cabriole feet with ornate acanthus motifs. The two outer doors open to generously proportioned storage compartments with internal shelves and hanging space, while the spacious central section provides full-width hanging capacity—making this a highly practical yet refined storage solution. Original brass handles and working locks remain intact, enhancing authenticity and charm. Dimensions Height: 85 Inches Width: 107 Inches Depth: 28.5 Inches
