Description

This sophisticated pair of early 20th-century mahogany bedside cabinets offers both decorative refinement and practical charm. Each cabinet is topped with a beautifully veined pink marble slab, providing a luxurious and durable surface ideal for lamps or personal items. Crafted from richly toned mahogany, the cabinets feature moulded panel fronts framed with gilt-bronze floral mounts and brass trim, showcasing elegant French-inspired styling. Each piece is fitted with a top drawer and a lower drop-down cupboard door, opening to reveal the original porcelain-lined interior. The cabinets stand on gracefully turned and fluted legs, retaining their original brass castors for smooth mobility. A lower shelf adds additional function, perfect for books or display.
