Description

A superb quality Regency mahogany serving table of impressive proportion featuring a beautifully figured top with shaped scrolling gallery back, a hallmark of refined early 19th-century design. The table is fitted with two mahogany-lined frieze drawers each with elegant ebony stringing, and a central veneered panel that adds symmetry and visual richness. Raised on tapered square legs with block feet, the table exudes classical Regency elegance combining practicality with exceptional craftsmanship. The richly polished mahogany shows a deep colour and striking grain, enhancing its sophisticated presence. This versatile piece can be used as a serving table, console, writing table, or statement hall table, lending grandeur to any interior.
