Description

A refined Edwardian mahogany jardinière stand decorated with elegant satinwood inlay giving the piece a subtle yet striking contrast. The circular top features delicate satinwood line inlay set within a moulded edge supported by slender square-section legs that gently curve towards the feet creating a beautifully balanced Edwardian silhouette. A round undertier provides additional stability and display space, also finished with matching satinwood inlay. The warm mahogany tones paired with the crisp satinwood detailing make this a versatile and highly decorative stand, ideal for plants, vases, sculptures or decorative accents throughout the home. Condition Good antique condition. Solid, stable and ready to place. Dimensions Height: 91.5 cm (36 in) Width: 33 cm (13 in) Depth: 33 cm (13 in) Date: Edwardian 1900 Origin: England
