Description

A magnificent antique French Louis XVI style side cabinet of exceptional quality showcasing beautiful marquetry work, richly cast gilt-bronze mounts and a shaped white marble top. The façade features finely detailed floral inlaid panels framed with crisp ormolu all set within striking parquetry arranged in elegant geometric patterns. The serpentine front, bold mounts and refined proportions give this cabinet a commanding presence, making it a standout decorative piece for any sophisticated interior. Inside, the cabinet offers a shelved storage compartment blending practicality with decorative artistry. Its craftsmanship, materials and ornamentation reflect the high standards of French cabinetmaking from this period. Styling Suggestions This cabinet makes a luxurious focal point in an entrance hall, sits beautifully beneath a large mirror or artwork, and works perfectly as a feature piece in a formal living room or dining space enhancing both traditional and Parisian-inspired interiors.
