Description

A superb antique Victorian brass oil lamp of elegant tall proportions richly detailed and beautifully preserved. This impressive piece stands on a reeded column terminating in a Corinthian capital, the casting crisp and refined, displaying the high-quality workmanship typical of the period. The polished brass reservoir has a striking mirror-bright finish complemented by a classic white glass shade and clear chimney creating a wonderfully timeless silhouette. This lamp offers a strong decorative presence and would look exceptional displayed on a console, sideboard, or writing desk, adding warmth and period character to both traditional and contemporary interiors.
