Description

A small antique rustic pine bench, constructed from thick solid boards with simple through-tenon and pegged joints visible to the top. The seat is formed from a single wide plank with naturally worn edges. The legs are shaped in a splayed form with angled cut-outs and are fixed directly into the underside of the top, typical of vernacular workshop or farmhouse seating. The pine has a weathered surface, honest utilitarian character. Item Reference: M-6496 . Dimensions: Height – 45cm / Width - 107cm / Depth - 34cm . CONDITION REPORT: Structurally solid and sound. Surface shows heavy wear, marks and old stains as well as loss consistent with age and use. Historic repairs visible throughout. In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report.
