Description

This is an antique silver display table. An English, mahogany presentation side table with candle slides, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1760. A delightful piece of country house furniture, offering superb colour, elegance and practicality. Select stocks presenting fine grain interest with rich caramel hues. Dished display top nestling gracefully within an elegant, beautifully crafted frame. Pair of extending candle slides, originally used to support candle nozzles for period illumination. Each slide draws smoothly with a small brass pull offering golden tonality. Attractive bracket knees accentuating each corner with refined Georgian detail. Standing upon a quartet of tall, slim legs terminating in fine pad feet. Offers an ideal platform for silverware, ornaments or cherished display pieces. A charming and well-presented Georgian side table, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and timeless appeal. Delivered ready for the home. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
