Description

A superb 19th-century French marquetry commode chest, beautifully inlaid and finished with high-quality gilt bronze (ormolu) mounts. This example features rich floral marquetry, bookmatched veneers, serpentine front, and its original shaped breccia marble top. The craftsmanship is exceptional, crisp casting to the gilt bronze mounts, high-quality veneers, and a warm, glowing colour throughout. The commode offers two deep drawers with plenty of storage and stands on elegant cabriole legs with gilt bronze sabots. A statement piece of genuine French furniture from the late 19th century. Condition In lovely original condition throughout. All drawers run smoothly; marble top excellent; mounts intact with natural age patina.
