Description

19th-Century Edwards & Roberts Stamped Chest of Drawers A genuine 19th-century chest of drawers stamped by the respected Victorian furnishers Howards & Roberts, London. This authentic period piece features four graduating full-width drawers, each fitted with original brass escutcheons and swan-neck handles, typical of the firm's mid-Victorian output. The chest has been finished in a soft, gently distressed painted surface that highlights its age while giving it a calm, neutral look suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors. The craftsmanship is evident throughout — from the solid drawer linings to the clean bracket feet and well-balanced proportions. A versatile and decorative storage piece for a bedroom, hallway, living room, or design-led interior. Features Maker-stamped Edwards & Roberts, London Victorian era, mid-19th century Four full-width drawers with original brass hardware Classic bracket feet and traditional proportions Hand-finished painted patina with subtle wear Solid, sturdy, and ready for everyday use Condition Good antique condition with age-related marks and wear consistent with Victorian furniture.
