Description

A stunning Victorian period burr walnut coffee table, featuring a richly figured walnut veneer and exquisite floral marquetry inlay to the top. The craftsmanship showcases the refined taste and elegance typical of late 19th-century design. The beautifully polished oval top sits on an ornately carved pedestal base with sweeping cabriole legs, each detailed with fine hand-carved motifs. The intricate intarsia work at the centre and corners adds depth, texture and timeless charm, making this piece a true focal point in any living room or traditional interior. The table has been gently restored and finished with a soft sheen that enhances the natural warmth and grain of the walnut.
