Description

A charming early 20th-century wooden dressing mirror, beautifully made with a warm, natural patina and an elegant shaped base. The mirror features a tilting (swivel) frame, allowing easy adjustment, and stands firmly on small bun feet. The glass is in very good vintage condition, retaining a clear reflection with only light signs of age. A lovely decorative piece for a bedroom, hallway, or dressing table full of character and timeless simplicity. Mirror glass clean and well-preserved, minor age-related marks consistent with use.
