Description

A beautifully proportioned late 19th-century Victorian side cabinet, crafted in walnut and featuring a decorative carved pediment. The piece offers a single panelled door opening to four useful shelves, ideal for storing books, linens, or small household items. The cabinet stands solid and stable, showing lovely warm patina and gentle surface wear appropriate for its age. A charming and practical piece that fits effortlessly into both traditional and modern interiors. Very good antique condition with light age-related marks. The door opens and closes smoothly.
