Description

A good quality two-tier rosewood whatnot dating from the early to mid 19th century. It has elegant turned supports with turned finials and a single drawer in the base with brass knobs. It stands on its original brass castors. It is in good condition for its age and is a good quality piece with lovely rich timbers. There are signs of age and use, some marks and minor stains on the surfaces but no major damages and it is strong and sturdy with a nice patina. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
