Description

A good looking tall antique Victorian coopered oak barrel stick stand or umbrella stand dating from circa 1880. This piece probably originated as a rum barrel, it is heavy and well-made with oak staves and bound with 5 steel hoops and is still very solid and sturdy; a testament to the skills of its craftsman. Of appealing, unusual tall form and character displaying a desirable age and patina with select oak staves with rich quarter sawn figuring, suitable for several sticks or umbrellas. Construction/Wood: Oak / Steel Condition Report: Good original weathered finish commensurate with age, very solid and sturdy. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Dimensions: Height: 61cm Width: 25cm Depth: 25cm Depth at Middle: 30cm
