Description

A refined Edwardian occasional table crafted in mahogany and decorated in the Sheraton Revival aesthetic, the top edged with crisp geometric stringing and centred by an oval sunburst inlay, all laid with sharp precision typical of the period. The table is raised on slender, lightly splayed and tapering legs united by a lower shelf. The restrained classical influence and clean lines, combined with the light overall form, make it easy to position within a room as needed. Presented in very good antique condition with a well-preserved surface, minor historic marks and light wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1905. H: 69.5 W: 61 D: 40 cm
