Description

An lovely late Georgian silver wine label as a letter "S" for Sherry with ornate cast decoration of scrolls and stylised vine leaves. Hallmarked for London 1830, no maker's initials due to lack of space but probably by William Sharp as the label matches another that is fully marked. It measures 4cm (1 9/16") high by 3.2cm (1 1/4") wide and weighs 17g / 0.5ozt (including the chain). In excellent condition. Perfect as a gift and could also be clearly used for Scotch, Sambuca or Sloe Gin....or even to personalise your own decanter if your name is Simon or Samantha!!
