Description

An exceptional original Art Deco linen cupboard featuring highly figured walnut veneer with striking macassar ebony accents. The cabinet showcases classic Deco geometry, refined proportions, and beautifully book-matched surfaces that highlight the richness and movement of the grain. The interior offers practical storage with multiple pull-out trays, all restored to a smooth and functional glide. The piece retains its original working lock and key—an authentic period detail increasingly rare to find. Fully restored to a professional standard, this cupboard presents in great condition throughout, with a warm satin finish that remains true to the era. A sophisticated and collectable example of 1930s craftsmanship, ideal for adding both utility and sculptural presence to a refined interior. With its exceptional condition, refined materials, and timeless Art Deco aesthetic, this cupboard is both a collector's piece and a practical addition to a stylish interior.
