Description

A set of three Victorian farmhouse chairs in elm, each with a shaped top rail and ring turned spindles. The seats are solid with attractive pronounced grain and saddle shaping. The legs are turned and unified by a stretcher for stability. Overall a charming set. Item Ref; M-6517 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 85.5cm / Width – 45cm / Depth – 46cm / Seat Height – 44.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout, with wear consistent with age and domestic use. The surfaces show knocks, marks, scratches, and some fading, particularly to the top rail. All three chairs are structurally solid and sound. One spindle has a crack, though it remains stable. There are historic repairs where the stretchers have been re-glued. Overall, an attractive set. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance and quality.
