Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 1930s 4.27 carat diamond and platinum twist style dress ring; part of our diverse collection of antique engagement rings. This stunning, fine and impressive antique diamond ring has been crafted in platinum. The pierced decorated platinum setting displays a stunning 2.05ct and 2.02ct transitional modern brilliant round cut diamond, each claw set and held diagonally on a twist. The twist style ring shoulders are embellished with four pavé set eight cut diamonds to either side of the central setting, totalling 0.20ct. This antique engagement ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum. This 1930s diamond twist ring is supplied with two IDGL diamond grading report certificates for the feature stones, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for the supporting stones. Such original and large examples with feature diamonds over 2 carat, are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. This exceptional 1930s 4 carat diamonds twist engagement ring is a breathtaking example of antique elegance. The graceful twist design symbolises unity and intertwined lives...
