Description

Victorian Mahogany Tilt-Top Table. Original Victorian carved tilt top Mahogany table. We bring to you this fine example of a timeless Victorian solid Mahogany tilt top oval table believed to be made around C1880. This stunning table has been cherished as it is in fantastic original condition retaining its original French polished finish throughout, with its lightly faded original colour. The table exudes a charming and rich patina with light surface marks and scratches (pictured) that speak to its long history and authentic character. The stunning moulded edge table top stands on its substantial beautifully turned base going to 4 proportionate beautifully shaped carved scroll cabriole legs which finishes to its original cast iron swivel castors. Unusually for a tilt top table and as a sign of the condition and quality of this table, there is little to no movement or play in the mechanism as the table is being normally used, the solid mahogany top is flat with no bowing or twisting and the snap latch smoothly operates. This table has a small overall form factor yet is versatile from having an oval shaped top managing to very comfortably accommodate 4 chairs and be used...
