Description

This refined Art Deco chrome desk clock by the renowned British silversmiths Mappin & Webb showcases the brand's timeless craftsmanship and classic design. Its sleek, understated form reflects early 20th-century elegance, making it an ideal addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. The clock is presented in good working order, having been professionally restored. The movement runs smoothly and reliably, and the chrome plating retains a good polished finish with age-appropriate signs of wear, see images. A distinguished and functional decorative object, this Mappin & Webb clock is perfect for collectors, gifting, or elevating a desk, mantel, or bedside table. BIO The story began in 1775, when Jonathan Mappin opened a workshop in Sheffield. His mission was to create the most beautifully crafted silverware for British society. The years that followed saw the company expand internationally, receiving Royal Warrants and commissions from Monarchs around the world, and becoming synonymous with excellence, craftsmanship and all things undeniably British. Mappin & Webb has been silversmiths to the United Kingdom's sovereigns since 1897. Today they continue as Jewe...
