Description

Antique 1920s Art Deco Platinum & Diamond Brooch An elegant Art Deco diamond brooch, dating from the 1920s–30s, crafted in platinum with fine millegriain detailing. This small oval brooch is pierced and delicately designed, secured with a pin and rollover safety catch. At its centre sits a single old brilliant-cut diamond of approx. 0.15ct, surrounded by sixteen illusion-set rose-cut diamonds, creating a refined sparkle typical of the Art Deco period. Details: Period: Art Deco, circa 1920s–30s Metal: Assessed as Platinum (unmarked) Gemstones: • 1 × old brilliant-cut diamond, approx. 0.15ct • 16 × rose-cut diamonds (illusion set) Dimensions: 4 × 1.5 cm (approx.) Weight: 5 grams Fastening: Pin with rollover safety catch Condition: Very good antique condition A fine example of Art Deco craftsmanship – understated, elegant, and wearable for both collectors and special occasions.
