Description

A superb Regency three-pillar mahogany dining table of exceptional quality and generous proportions capable of seating 12 to 14 diners comfortably. The table comprises two console ends and a long central section each standing on an elegant turned column and supported by outswept sabre legs terminating in original brass castors. The beautifully figured mahogany top has a rich, even colour and a refined lustre with rounded corners and clean Regency lines. The three sections fit together securely forming an impressive long dining table ideal for both formal dining and larger gatherings. Each pedestal features carved reeded detailing and retains excellent stability. A fine example of Regency craftsmanship and scale, offering versatility, elegance, and presence in any dining room.
