Description

A fully restored Art Deco Style desk clock in full working condition. The movement is made by Mauthe and has been fully disassembled, cleaned and reassembled back into working condition. It's designed as an 8 day clock and keeps good time . Its sleek, understated form reflects early 20th-century elegance, making it an ideal addition to both traditional and contemporary interiors. The base has had red felt glued onto it for delicate surfaces. Full working order having been recently professionally serviced. A fine decorative object and functional timepiece, an Art Deco clock that is ideal for collectors, interior decorators, or anyone seeking a refined piece of 1930s design history.
