Description

Oil Painting on Canvas by John Fitz Marshall (1859–1932) – Still Life with Yellow Roses This exquisite oil painting on canvas is the work of British artist John Fitz Marshall (1859–1932), known for his finely detailed still-life compositions. The piece depicts a graceful arrangement of yellow roses, painted with exceptional realism and sensitivity. The artist's delicate brushwork and nuanced handling of light bring depth and softness to the petals and foliage as they reflect onto the polished surface. A Ladybird sitting on a petal is a nice touch. The painting is finished in a quality ornate serpentine shaped gilt frame. A refined and elegant still life signed to the bottom left J Fitz Marshall 1892. Frame size 54cm x 34cm
