Description

A smart Georgian country house rocking chair full of charm. This handsome early 19th century oak and ash chair would look stunning in a country kitchen or fireside. Displaying typical Georgian craftsmanship this rocking chair has vertical reeded back supports with hand turned decorative spheres; shaped open arms; a plank seat raised on square upright supports with neat rockers. All in very good antique condition with rich patina and colour. Solid in joint and suitable for use - not just decorative! A beautiful addition to the home.
