Description

South Eastern & Chatham Railway Station Master's Pocket Watch, No. 2842 — Circa 1920, & S.E.& C.R. Lantern, a set. A fine original South Eastern & Chatham Railway-issued Station Master's pocket watch, No. S.E.&C.R. 2842, dating to around 1920. The watch features a 15-jewel Waltham movement housed in its original Dennison nickel case. It is fully marked throughout and fitted with an excellent, undamaged dial and original bevelled glass. Recently fully serviced, the watch is in full working order. This is a large, heavy timepiece, measuring 58 mm in diameter (excluding the stem tube and crown) and 2 cm in depth. Included with the watch is an original S.E.&C.R. lantern, reference No. S.E.&C.R. 7217, complete with brass plaque on the neck and matching stamp on the main body, and for the same period. A fine and authentic set. Price: £995.00, including UK shipping.
